

Detailed Occupational Groups have occupational homogeneity and there is a closer relationship between occupations in the same group in terms of work performed than to occupations outside the group.